The Love of a Soldier

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."
John 15:13

For God, for country, for family, a soldier gives all he or she possibly can.

For friends at home, as well as, for strangers in a far off foreign land.

They do boldly go where duty calls, and they take their stand.

Willingly they battle evils; all for 'justice' sake, even if their very lives, the war, of them does demand.

Still bravely for our freedom they fight to the end, and they obey their every given command.

So next time you see a soldier, or their loved ones; thank them with a smile, and offer them your hand.

Because they have and they do; offer all for you, and for all of our great land.

Thank-you every soldier, for your every sacrafice.

Thank-You God above, for the love of a soldier.

Sincerely,
